CAROLINA BEACH, NC---Want to have fun, have lunch and learn more about the Town of Carolina Beach at the same time?

All citizens and guests are invited to attend “Community Day in the Park” on Saturday, May 1, 2004, 12 noon – 2 p.m. at the Lake Park. This special event is a town-wide open house featuring food, music, face painting, balloons, paddle boat rides and games for children such as the sack race and egg toss. Partnering with the town in the celebration will be Wheel Fun Rentals. They will have the grand opening of their new paddle boat rides at the same time and will offer rides at discounted rates. Duke and Tracee Hagerstrom are the local owners/operators of Wheel Fun Rentals and can be reached at (910) 617-9792.

As a special consideration for residents, Vehicle Identification Decals will be on sale at the $5 (pre-March 31 deadline) rate for this event only. Carolina Beach Fire and Police Departments will both have vehicles on display and other departments will have displays or provide information.

“Community Day in the Park is a new outreach effort to the public,” said Mayor Dennis Barbour. “We are extending ourselves to the community to share information and help make town services more accessible,” Mayor Barbour said. At the event, the mayor will announce some recent accomplishments of the town.

For more information on Community Day, contact the Public Information Office at (910) 458-5663.
